FLOW: Experience Your Best Self Through Mindful Living

In today's business climate, demands are increasing, human capacity is shrinking, and stress is at an all-time high. We are running out of space at work and in our lives and it time to intentionally reprogram our human capacity to do more, give more, and use our advanced resources to thrive instead of fizzle. What would life be like if you could enter your most productive, creative mental state at will? In this presentation, Kristen Johnson Brogan will teach you how to combine mindfulness, food, and movement to build your best self and flow into a state of peak performance. Within the first 37 seconds, Kristen will have you hanging on to her every word as she brings her authentic personality, stories, and humor to engage and captivate. Kristen will share key ideas and a series of breakthrough insights to help you to create a state of momentum and growth. Most importantly, Kristen will leave you with simple action steps for achieving better work flow, life flow, while helping you to find more balance in your everyday.

HUNGRY FOR HAPPINESS: Food, Mood, & The Gut Brain Connection

Twenty- three hundred years ago, Aristotle concluded that, more than anything else, men and women seek happiness. And even though we are surrounded by more luxuries and opportunities than ever before—we are actually less happy. 40 million Americans struggle with mental health issues such as anxiety, panic attacks bipolar disorder, depression, eating disorders, schizophrenia, and substance abuse. Research suggests that this rise in mental health conditions could be due to higher demands people are facing in the workplace, lack of recovery from stress, and over stimulation of social media and electronic devices. Although many of these conditions start in the mind, they can impact our entire being. From mental health to physical health, Kristen Brogan, Chief Mindful Living Officer at On Target Living will give you simple strategies for recovering from this over processed world as she reveals the secret to lifelong happiness.

MINDFUL LEADERSHIP: Leading with Purpose While Inspiring Others

Stress, anxiety, depression, poor health and work/life imbalances are rampant inside most organizations. How can you produce results and inspire those around you when the world just keeps speeding up? Join Kristen Brogan, Chief Mindful Living Officer at On Target Living as she shows you how to be a mindful leader who stays focused amongst constant distractions, maintains a high level of energy in the present moment, and has the ability to stay calm in a world of chaos and stress. In this eye- opening presentation, Kristen will share groundbreaking insights for expanding human capacity and discovering the power of feeling your best. At the end of the presentation, participants will be guided through a short meditation for reducing stress, improving productivity, and unlocking the mindful leader in them. It's not about showing up anymore, it's about showing up with purpose in the here and the now.

MINDFULLY DELICIOUS: The Recipe for Your Best Life (Cooking Demonstration)

Food is our universal language; but not all of us talk food the same. Philosophies and beliefs about what to eat, how to eat, and why to eat certain foods abound. We have made the simple act of eating, complicated and stressful. Worse, we have taken the fun and love out of it. Join Kristen Brogan in this one of a kind experiences as she shows you how to live healthy without giving up the things you love. She'll teach you how to make the act of eating simple, easy and fun through her mindful eating approach to food while showing you how to cook meals that are healthy and delicious. This ultimate foodie experience blends a mindful eating presentation with a dynamic cooking demonstration to blow your mind and taste buds. From oatmeal, smoothies and salads to French toast, cookies and cakes, nothing is off limits when you live mindfully delicious.
